PANIC

BY

Joseph Goodrich

Directed by Suzanne King,
Assistant Director – Judith Mallernee

Paris - 1963. Director Henry Lockwood has come to the City of Light for the premiere of his new film, Panic. Lockwood expects nothing more than to enjoy another cinematic success and to bask in the adulation of young French film critic Alain Duplay. When Lockwood is accused of a hideous crime, a crime that could destroy his career and his marriage, he's forced to confront the truth about himself and those closest to him. Lockwood, known the world over as 'the Sultan of Suspense,' is caught in a nightmare straight out of one of his own films.
