A CHRISTMAS CAROL

By David McGillvray & Walter Zerlin Jnr

SHOW:

In festive mood, the F.A.H.E.T.G.D.S. ladies mount yet another assault on the classics with their stage version of A Christmas Carol. Enthusiasm their middle name, and with the virile support of stage-manager Gordon, the cast present a dizzy array of characters from the Dickensian favourite (and a few which aren't) under the ever-battling leadership of Thelma and Mrs. Reece. Of course, no Farndale evening would be quite complete without those wayward touches of ingenuity for which the ladies are so justly famed, so, in truly sparkling form, Mrs. Reece engineers some novel audience participation while bravely contending with the chattily-intrusive PA system. And, a real Farndale First: two specially-composed songs providing unique, show-stopping opportunities for the ladies to wrap their vocal cords and feet around.

CHARACTERS: 1 man and 4 women

Mrs Reese - elegant, bossy, enterprising; 50's.

Thelma - quick-tempered prima donna; late 40's

Gordon - long-suffering stage manager, frozen-faced and monotonous when acting; age immaterial.

Felicity - nervous, well-meaning but incompetent actress; late 20's.

Mercedes - phlegmatic yet dogged; not young.

DIRECTOR: Elvin Moriarty
